Mr. Joseph Lynch
Office of Special Investigations
Civil Division
Department of Justice
1375 K Street, N. W.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Lynch:

Enclosed with this letter are your notes taken during the review of CIA files on 21 May 1980. Please note that they have been classified "Secret" in order to protect intelligence sources and methods. The information contained in this material is for your background use only and may not be disseminated to any other persons, or used in any other way, without prior approval of this Agency.

Per your request, I have informed the Department of State of your request for access to a CIA prepared summary of State Department records and I have forwarded a copy of that summary to State for their review. We have also located a similar summary of information contained in the files of the Immigration and Naturalization Service which may be of assistance to you. Accordingly, I have forwarded a copy of that document to the Immigration and Naturalization Service informing them of your possible interest in the document.

Sincerely yours,
